ថិលទ្ធ ២ សិទិតាទី ចុះទីបីស៊ី] (បុណ្ត់រៈ បង្សាប់ប្បព្រៃសេរមាន JAll Rights Reserved]

පැරණී නිර්දේශය/பழைய பாடத்திட்டம்/Old Syllabus

ශී ලංකා විභාල අදපූර්තමේන්තුව ශී ලංකා විහලි ලොකා විචාහා ඉදුදැප්උතුමේන්තුවර්තුව ශී ලංකා විභාල දෙපාර්තමේන්තුව ශීලංක ශීල්දේ OLD jons, Sri Lanka වංනුහස්තෙන්ව් xusfliconeන් Srන්කාන්ව් කෙරු මේ OLD jons, Sri Lanka වංනුහස්තෙන්ව් xusfliconeන් Srන්කාන්ව් කෙරුව ශී මේ දේශ්ව ශීල්දක විභාල දෙපාර්තමේන්තුර ශී ලංකා විභාල දෙපාර්තමේන්තුව ශී ශීලත්තෙන්ට සැදකතන නිතනස්සාහේ ඉහෙනස් Department of Examinations, Stillanka කියලාව

අධායන පොදු සහතික පතු (සාමානා පෙළ) විභාගය, 2017 දෙසැම්බර් கல்விப் பொதுத் தராதரப் பத்திர (சாதாரண தர)ப் பரீட்சை, 2017 டிசெம்பர் General Certificate of Education (Ord. Level) Examination, December 2017

බුද්ධ ධර්මය I, II

பௌத்தம் I, II

Buddhism I, II

පැය තුනයි மூன்று மணித்தியாலம் Three hours

Buddhism I

Note:

- (i) Answer all questions.
- (ii) In each of the questions 1 to 40, pick one of the alternatives (1), (2), (3), (4) which you consider as correct or most appropriate.
- (iii) Mark a cross (X) on the number corresponding to your choice in the answer sheet provided.
- (iv) Further instructions are given on the back of the answer sheet. Follow them carefully.
- 1. "Oh friends, it is suitable to visit the ascetic Gothama by ourselves rather than his coming to visit us." This is how a Brahmin pointed out the qualities of the Buddha. That Brahmin is
 - (1) Ambattha.
- (2) Sonadanda.
- (3) Vacchagotta.
- (4) Potthapāda.
- 2. "One who sees Dhamma sees me", Buddha delivered this statement to
 - (1) Puṇṇa Thero.
- (2) Änanda Thero.
- (3) Vakkali Thero.
- (4) King Kosala.
- 3. The Buddha, for seven weeks, spent at various places near the Bodhi tree after his enlightenment. Accordingly, the 7th week was spent
 - (1) in the Jewelled house.

- (2) under the Rajāyatana Kiripalee tree.
- (3) near the Sri Mahabodhi.
- (4) under the Ajapāla banyan tree.
- 4. The duties performed prior to his meal by the Buddha who had only one meal per day were known as
 - (1) Perabat kisa.
- (2) Perayam kisa.
- (3) Pasubat kisa.
- (4) Pesuluyam kisa.

- 5. The Buddha delivered Anattalakkhana Sutta to
 - (1) Ven. Moggallana Thero.
- (2) five ascetics.

(3) Ven. Sāriputta Thero.

- (4) Bhaddha vaggiya Theras.
- 6. The Buddha who listened to a song praising the qualities of triple gem played with violin appreciated it. That song was sung by
 - (1) the god sakka.

(2) the god pañcasikha.

(3) the musician Guttila.

- (4) the musician Mūsila.
- 7. "The householder, If anyone who uses this body, says even for a moment, that my body is free from sickness, it is due to the ignorance". the Buddha uttered this to
 - (1) Nakula pitā.

(2) The millionaire Anāthapindika.

(3) The householder citta.

- (4) The father of Yasa.
- 8. "Buddha is the only great personality who had received respect from a maximum number of human beings." The Buddha was praised in this way by
 - (1) Professor Saunders.

(2) Abdul Atāhilā.

(3) H. G. Wales.

- (4) Dr. Sarvapalli Radha Krishnan.
- 9. The life which is attached to the wrong and unethical conducts in a diverse society is known in Buddhism as
 - (1) the righteous life.

- (2) the life similar to a lotus (Padmākāra).
- (3) the life of non-violence.

(4) the simple life.

10. The teacher who succeeded the Buddha after his parinibbana, as stated in the Pali Canon was (1) Elder Säriputa Thero. (2) Elder Moggallana Thero. (3) Elder Kondañña Thero. (4) Dhamma and Vinaya. 11. The two lines of the Dhammapada stanza which state that living alone is appropriate, if their is not friend with qualities higher or equal to oneself to associate are (1) astres star matino - star et alsam dassino. (2) askocchinana vardhimam - ajinimam ahāsine. (3) caran co radhigacchevya - seyvam sadisamattano. (4) susukham vata jīvāma - verinesu averino. (2) "Someone scolded me, hit me, conquered me, stole my belongings". If such things are remembered frequently, the feeling that arises in the mind of a person is (1) patience. (2) caring. (3) envy. (4) hatred. 13. Although others are impure with ten unwholesome deds such as killing etc, if we are determined to live with pure minds while avoiding such actions, it is known as (1) Apanuaka patipadā. (2) Sallekha patipadā. (3) Althopanayika Dharma pariyāya. (4) huhunka patipadā. (5) Sallekha patipadā. (6) Solling water. (7) water with moss. (1) Coloured water. (2) Elder Moggallana thero. (3) Wedana. (4) Salayatana. 14. A nīvarana related to the uneasiness and repentance with regard to committed bad actions and uncommitted good actions in the mind is known as (1) Udhadheca kukkuchcha. (2) Kāmachchanda. (3) Vicikicca. (4) Thina middha. (5) Kāmachchanda. (6) Kāmachchanda. (7) Kāmachchanda. (8) Vicikicca. (9) Dittadhamna vedanīya. (10) Eldadhamna vedanīya. (11) Rahma Vayāma. (22) Sammā Sati. (33) Sammā Ājīva. (44) Sammā Sankappa. 15. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) kanma vedanīya. (10) Kanma. (21) Elder Moggalīga such as pointed out by five similies accordingly, viñāāna is like a (11) banana trunk. (22) uijuaţipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) Asmīcipatipanna. (5) Aparāgaryar vedauīya. (6) Ahōsi. (7) Kanma Vayāma. (8) Aparāgaryar vedauīya. (9) Apagariyar vedauīya.
friend with qualities higher or equal to oneself to associate are (1) asåre säre matino – såre cit såre dassino. (2) akkoochiman avadinnam – ajinimam ahäsime. (3) caran ce nädhigaecheyya – seyyam sadisamattano. (4) stusukham vata jiväma – verinesa averino. 12. "Someone scolded me, hit me, conquered me, stole my belongings". If such things are rememberes frequently, the feeling that arises in the mind of a person is (1) patience. (2) caring. (3) envy. (4) hatred. 13. Although others are impure with ten unwholesome deeds such as killing etc, if we are determined to live with pure minds while avoiding such actions, it is known as (1) Apannaka patipada. (3) Although others are impure with ten unwholesome deeds such as killing etc, if we are determined to live with pure minds while avoiding such actions, it is known as (1) Apannaka patipada. (3) Authorganayika Dharma pariyāya. (4) huhunka patipada. (3) Authorganayika Dharma pariyāya. (4) huhunka patipada. (3) Authorganayika Dharma pariyāya. (4) huhunka patipada. (5) vedana patipada. (6) Vedana paticheha Samuppāda Tanhā arises within a being due to (1) Upādāna. (7) Phassa. (8) Vedana. (9) Vedana. (10) Vedana. (11) Upādāna. (12) Phassa. (13) Vedana. (14) Salāyatana. (15) Vedkicca. (16) Kāmachehanda. (17) Vicikicca. (18) Kāmachehanda. (19) Vicikicca. (19) Kāmachehanda. (10) Vicikicca. (20) Kāmachehanda. (31) Vicikicca. (32) Kāmachehanda. (43) Kāmachehanda. (44) Salmarā Sankappa. (45) Sammā Sankappa. (56) Sammā Sati. (57) Sammā Ajīva. (68) Sammā Sankappa. (79) Upapajja vedanīya. (89) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (90) Upapajja vedanīya. (10) Diṭṭpadhamma vedanīya. (10) Diṭṭpadhamma vedanīya. (10) Diṭṭpadhamna. (10) Uṭṭpadānana. (11) Viṭṭpadhamna. (12) upatipanna. (13) Naparāpariya vedanīya. (14) Ahōsi. (15) According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (10) Kamma. (10) Diṭṭpadhamna. (10) upatipanna. (11) Upapajja vedanīya. (12) Manārā vejadanīya. (13) According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due	10.	(1) Elder Sāriputta The	ero.	(2)	Elder Moggallāna	Thero.
frequently, the feeling that arises in the mind of a person is (1) patience. (2) caring. (3) envy. (4) hatred. 13. Although others are impure with ten unwholesome deeds such as killing etc, if we are determined to live with pure minds while avoiding such actions, it is known as (1) Apannaka patipadā. (2) Sallekha patipadā. (3) Althopanayika Dharma pariyāya. (4) huhunka patipadā. 14. Pañca nīvarana dharma are explained on the basis of five similies. Thus, Uddacheha kukkuchcha is like (1) coloured water. (2) boiling water. (3) water with moss. (4) moving water. 15. According to Anuloma patichcha Samuppāda Tanhā arises within a being due to (1) Upādāna. (2) Phassa. (3) Vedana. (4) Salāyatana. 16. A nīvarana related to the uneasiness and repentance with regard to committed bad actions and uncommitted good actions in the mind is known as (1) Uddhachca kukkuchcha. (2) Kāmachchanda. (3) Vicikiccā. (4) Thina middha. 17. Right livelihood is to continue the life with carning things in righteous manner. In the case of a ordained person, the avoidance of hypocrisy such as showing unavailable virtues to gain four requisite is known as (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (2) Sammā Sati. (3) Sammā Ājiva. (4) Sammā Sankappa. 18. The karma which produces results at any occasion in the sansāra according to the time of fruition i known as (1) Dittadhamma vedanīya. (2) Upapajja vedanīya. (3) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (2) Upapajja vedanīya. (4) Ahōsi. 19. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahāsangba, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viñāñan is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on	11.	friend with qualities higher or equal to oneself to associate are (1) asare sara matino - sare ca sara dassino. (2) akkocchiman avadhimam - ajinimam ahasime. (3) caran ce nadhigaccheyya - seyyam sadisamattano.
tive with pure minds while avoiding such actions, it is known as (1) Apannaka patipadā. (2) Sallekha patipadā. (3) Atthūpanayika Dharma pariyāya. (4) huhunka paṭipadā. (5) Atthūpanayika Dharma pariyāya. (6) huhunka paṭipadā. (7) Parāca nīvarana dharma are explained on the basis of five similies. Thus, Uddacheha kukkuchcha is like (1) coloured water. (8) water with moss. (9) boiling water. (1) water with moss. (1) Upādāna. (2) Phassa. (3) Vedana. (4) Salāyatana. (5) Vedana. (6) A nīvarana related to the uneasiness and repentance with regard to committed bad actions and uncommitted good actions in the mind is known as (1) Uddhachca kukkuchcha. (2) Kāmachchanda. (3) Vicikiceā. (4) Thīna middha. (3) Vicikiceā. (4) Thīna middha. (5) Vigith livelihood is to continue the life with earning things in righteous manner. In the case of an ordained person, the avoidance of hypoerisy such as showing unavailable virtues to gain four requisite is known as (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (2) Sammā Sati. (3) Sammā Ājiva. (4) Sammā Sankappa. 18. The karma which produces results at any occasion in the sansāra according to the time of fruition is known as (1) Dittadhamma vedanīya. (2) Upapaija vedanīya. (3) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (4) Ahosi. 19. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahasangha, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. (5) deception. (6) water bubble. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viñiñana is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid spec	12.	frequently, the feeling	that arises in the mind	of	a person is
(1) coloured water. (3) water with moss. (4) moving water. (5) hoiling water. (6) moving water. (7) water with moss. (8) moving water. (9) Phassa. (1) Upādāna. (1) Upādāna. (2) Phassa. (3) Vedana. (4) Salāyatana. (5) Salāyatana. (6) A nīvarana related to the uneasiness and repentance with regard to committed bad actions and uncommitted good actions in the mind is known as (1) Udāhachca kukkuchcha. (8) Vicikiccā. (9) Kāmachchanda. (1) Right livelihood is to continue the life with carning things in righteous manner. In the case of an ordained person, the avoidance of hypoerisy such as showing unavailable virtues to gain four requisite is known as (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (9) Sammā Sati. (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (2) Sammā Sati. (3) Sammā Ājiva. (4) Sammā Sankappa. (5) Upapajja vedanīya. (6) Ahōsi. (7) According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (8) parents. (9) ujupatipanna. (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. (5) ujupatipanna. (6) viñāāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (7) mirage. (8) deception. (9) water bubble. (1) the evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (1) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species.	13.	live with pure minds (1) Apannaka paţipadā	while avoiding such act	tions (2)	, it is known as Sallekha paṭipadā.	ing etc, if we are determined to
(1) Upādāna. (2) Phassa. (3) Vedana. (4) Salāyatana. 16. A nīvarana related to the uneasiness and repentance with regard to committed bad actions and uncommitted good actions in the mind is known as (1) Uddhachca kukkuchcha. (2) Kāmachchanda. (3) Vicikiccā. (4) Thīna middha. 17. Rīght livelihood is to continue the life with earning things in righteous manner. In the case of an ordained person, the avoidance of hypocrisy such as showing unavailable virtues to gain four requisite is known as (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (2) Sammā Sati. (3) Sammā Ājiva. (4) Sammā Sankappa. 18. The karma which produces results at any occasion in the sansāra according to the time of fruition is known as (1) Dittadhamma vedanīya. (2) Upapajja vedanīya. (3) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (4) Ahōsi. 19. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahāsangha, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viñnāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañāa Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species.	14.	(1) coloured water.	are explained on the ba	(2)	boiling water.	s, Uddachcha kukkuchcha is like uncommitted good actions in the mind is known as (1) Uddhachca kukkuchcha. (2) Kāmachchanda. (3) Vicikiccā. (4) Thina middha. 17. Right livelihood is to continue the life with earning things in righteous manner. In the case of an ordained person, the avoidance of hypocrisy such as showing unavailable virtues to gain four requisite is known as (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (2) Sammā Sati. (3) Sammā Ājiva. (4) Sammā Sankappa. 18. The karma which produces results at any occasion in the sansāra according to the time of fruition is known as (1) Dittadhamma vedanīya. (2) Upapajja vedanīya. (3) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (4) Ahōsi. 19. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahāsangha, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viñāāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as	15.	_				and the second s ordained person, the avoidance of hypocrisy such as showing unavailable virtues to gain four requisite is known as (1) Sammā Vāyāma. (2) Sammā Sati. (3) Sammā Ājiva. (4) Sammā Sankappa. 18. The karma which produces results at any occasion in the sansāra according to the time of fruition is known as (1) Dittadhamma vedanīya. (2) Upapajja vedanīya. (3) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (4) Ahōsi. 19. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahāsangha, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viññāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as	16.	uncommitted good ac (1) Uddhachca kukkuc	tions in the mind is k	now (2)	n as Kāmac hchanda.	to committed bad actions and known as (1) Dittadhamma vedanīya. (2) Upapajja vedanīya. (3) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (4) Ahōsi. 19. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahāsangha, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viññāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as	17.	ordained person, the avis known as	oidance of hypocrisy su	ich a	as showing unavailal	ble virtues to gain four requisites
(1) Dittadhamma vedanīya. (2) Upapajja vedanīya. (3) Aparāpariya vedanīya. (4) Ahōsi. 19. According to Buddhism, beings are born with differences such as noble and base due to the (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahāsangha, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viññāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as	18.	· .	luces results at any occ	asio	n in the sansāra acc	cording to the time of fruition is
 (1) Kamma. (2) parents. (3) society. (4) religion. 20. The Mahāsangha, according to the meaning, 'following noble eightfold path leading to Nibbana' is known as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viññāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as 		(1) Dittadhamma vedan
as (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viññana is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as	19.		_
 (1) supatipanna. (2) ujupatipanna. (3) ñayapatipanna. (4) sāmīcipatipanna. 21. The fact that five aggregates are not stable or unchangeable dharmas is pointed out by five similies Accordingly, viññana is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as 	20.		ding to the meaning, 'fo	llow	ing noble eightfold p	oath leading to Nibbana' is known
Accordingly, viññāna is like a (1) banana trunk. (2) mirage. (3) deception. (4) water bubble. 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as			(2) ujupatipanna.	(3)	ñayapatipanna.	(4) sāmīcipatipanna.
 22. The evolution of the universe, as revealed in Aggañña Sutta, occurs on the basis of (1) the cause and effect relationship. (2) the desire of the omniscience god. (3) accidentally, without a cause and effect. (4) an anthropoid species. 23. The perfection related to the refraining from the desire for fulfilling the organs such as eyes and ear while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as 	21.	Accordingly, viññāna is	s like a while receiving objects such as forms and sounds is known as	22.	The evolution of the (1) the cause and effe	universe, as revealed in ct relationship.	Agg (2)	gañña Sutta, occurs the desire of the o	on the basis of omniscience god.
	23.	while receiving objects	such as forms and sou	ınds	is known as

24.	The thing that does not belong to the forty (1) dasa asubha. (2) satara āruppa.			ion is) satara iddhipāda.
25.	The fact which is not included among the deteacher as mentioned in the worship of six (1) respecting him by rising from the seat. (2) attending to his needs. (3) listening to the teacher attentively. (4) not engaging in bad behaviours.	luties direct	that are to be perforn tions in Sigālōvāda Sut	ned by the pupil towards the ta is
26.	The meaning of the term, 'Santussaka' as men (1) not having many duties. (3) possessed with pacified organs.	(2)	d in Karanīyametta Sutta being satisfied with w being intelligent.
27.	The Buddha compared Man and Woman leadsins and ten unwholesome acts, without Sad the ordained persons to living together of a (1) male dead body with a female dead body (2) Male dead body with a female deity. (3) deity with a female dead body. (4) deity with a female deity.	dha,
28.	The Buddha preached a number of Buddhist pr fact which is not a principle of governance is (1) Dasa rāja dharma. (3) Aparihānīya Dhamma.	(2)	les for the righteous gov Satara Sangraha Vatthi Satara Karmaklesa.
29.	"Son, this universal kingship is not an inherit person by fulfilling practices properly related (1) Kūtadanta Sutta. (3) Cakkavattisīhanāda Sutta.	to i
30.	There is only one race of human beings in the basis of biological evidence. According a division based on gender. This was stated (1) Sarvamitra. (2) Vāsettha.	to th by th	e Buddha, it is not a	and musculine if divided on division of race or caste but (4) Adinnapubbaka.
31.	The teachings of the Buddha were maintained Accordingly, Khuddhaka Nikaya was given to (1) the disciples headed by Ven. Ananda. (2) the disciples headed by Ven. Mahākassapa (3) all the monks. (4) the disciples headed by Ven. Purāna.)	rally by bhānakas after	the first Buddhist Council.
32.	The forth therayada Buddhist Council was held (1) Ashokaramaya of Paṭaliputra. (3) Jetayanaramaya of Sāvatti.	(2)	the beginning of Christ Aloka temple of Māta Kundalawana vihāra o	le.
33.	According to the Dharmavijaya principle of was sent to svarnabhumi, out of the nine cou (1) Majihanttika Thero. (3) Majjihima Thero.	ıntrie (2)	emperor Dharmashoka, the dharmadhūta monk who ies was Soņa and Uttara Theras. Mahārakkhita Thero.
34.	Symbols were used for the Buddha in carvings which was not used in this regard was (1) Vajrāsana. (2) Lotus.	s crea	ated by the artists durin (3) Bodhi tree.	g the early period. A symbol (4) The series of rays.
35.	The literary periods have been divided according of ancient sinhala literature. Thus, the third (1) Anuradhapura. (2) Dambadeniya.	perio

- 36. The only poetry text remains from the Anuradhapura period is
 (1) Siyabaslakara. (2) Kausilumina. (3) Muvadevdāvata. (4) Guttila Kāvyaya.

 37. "Sinhalese Buddhist children, be determined not to tell lies even at the expense of your life."
- 37. "Sinhalese Buddhist children, be determined not to tell lies even at the expense of your life." This statement was uttered by
 - (1) Sir Henry Steel Olcott.
- (2) Madam Blavatski.
- (3) Migettuwatte Gunananda Thero.
- (4) Anagarika Dharmapala.
- 38. "Save mānusā mama paja". The ruler who uttered this statement is king
 - (1) Dharmashoka.
- (2) Kosala.
- (3) Bimbisara.
- (4) Ajāsatta.
- 39. Buddhism has advised Buddhists to earn wealth righteously. Accordingly, a method which is considered as a righteous way of earning wealth is

※ ※

- (1) cattle breeding.
- (2) trading.
- (3) government service.
- (4) slavery.
- 40. The tooth relic was brought to Sri Lanka during the period of King
 - (1) Dutugemunu.
- (2) Valagamba.
- (3) Upatissa.
- (4) Kitsirimevan.

සියලු ම හිමිකම් ඇව්රිණි] (முழுப் பதிப்புரிமையுடையது]All Rights Reserved]

පැරණි නිර්දේශය/பழைய பாடத்திட்டம்/Old Syllabus

යි ලංකා විකාල පොට්තමේන්තුව යි ලංකා විශ්ල ලොකා විහාග ලෙළවාර්තුමේන්තුව්තුව යි ලංකා විකාල පොට්තමේන්තුව යි ලංකා ඉතා OIII compartment in the compartment of a compart in the compartment of E in the

අධායන පොදු සහතික පතු (සාමානා පෙළ) විභාගය, 2017 දෙසැම්බර් கல்விப் பொதுத் தராதரப் பத்திர (சாதாரண தர)ப் பரீட்சை, 2017 டிசெம்பர் General Certificate of Education (Ord. Level) Examination, December 2017

බුද්ධ ධර්මය I, II

பௌத்தம் I, II

Buddhism I, II

Buddhism II

- * Answer five questions only, choosing the first one and any four questions.
- * The first question carries 20 marks and other questions 10 marks.
- 1. (i) Write the names of the two teachers to whom the prince Siddhartha went in search of truth after his renunciation.
 - (ii) Name the place where the Buddha passed away.
 - (iii) There are three wholesome roots in Buddhism. Write two of them.
 - (iv) Write Satara Sangraha Vastu.
 - (v) Write the meaning of "Sabba pāpassa akaranam kusalassa upasampada".
 - (vi) Explain the meaning of 'Atthi Sukha'.
 - (vii) What are the two monasteries built and offered by king Bimbisara and millionaire Anāthapindika.
 - (viii) What is emphasized in the statement, "Na jacca vasalo hoti na jacca hoti brahmano..."
 - (ix) Write the names of the authors who composed the texts, 'Amavatura' and 'Saddharmaratnavaliya'.
 - (x) Explain the "Moonstone" in brief.
- 2. (i) Name two characteristics that should be possessed by a person who practises loving kindness as mentioned in Karanīya Metta Sutta.
 - (ii) Explain how loving-kindness should be developed as mentioned in this Sutta.
 - (iii) Explain how the development of loving-kindness can be utilized not only for the tolerance of individual mind but also for the social solidarity.
- 3. (i) Write the Dhammapada Stanza which states that the hatred is never ceaseble... by hatred".
 - (ii) Write the meaning of this stanza.
 - (iii) Explain how the advice found in this stanza contribute to solve the social conflicts.
- 4. (i) According to the teachings of Sigālovāda Sutta, who were compared to the directions, above and below, in order to fulfil one's own duties?
 - (ii) Write three duties that should be performed by any of the social groups you mentioned above.
 - (iii) Explain how the facts found in this Sutta could be utilized to build good social relations.
- 5. (i) Define the term 'environment' with reference to Buddhism.
 - (ii) Describe how the importance of preservation of environment have been praised by the Buddha.
 - (iii) Explain how refraining from the environmental pollution and conservation of environment become a social duty.

- 6. (i) Point out the reasons that led to conduct of the first Buddhist Council.
 - (ii) Write the venue, the king patronized and the arahat who chaired the first Buddhist Council.
 - (iii) Explain how the first Buddhist Council assisted the preservation of both Dhamma and Vinaya.
- 7. (i) Stupa is classified into six categories according to the shape of its dome. Mention two of them.
 - (ii) Introduce in brief the Vaţadāge and Vāhalkaḍa.
 - (iii) Evaluate the art skills of Sri lankan Artists with reference to the creation of Stupa.

* * *